

18 Quiz Movement

ANSWERS

1. In which disease can you still climb stairs and follow the movements of a parade but have slow movements and resting tremors:

- a. Huntington's
- b. Parkinson's
- c. Alzheimer's
- d. none of the above

2. Whose axons go down both sides of the spinal cord and control posture:

- a. lateral geniculate nuclei tract
- b. dorsal-lateral superior tract
- c. medial corticospinal tract
- d. ventral-temporal tract

3. When the police give a finger-to-nose test, it actually measures the functioning of the:

- a. LGN & MGN
- b. cerebellum
- c. frontal lobe
- d. pons

4. Which controls movements by inhibiting and uninhibiting the thalamus:

- a. pre-frontal cortex
- b. basal ganglia
- c. motor cortex
- d. cerebellum

5. Which is the result of immune system anti-bodies attacking acetylcholine receptors:

- a. Myasthenia Gravis
- b. Huntington's
- c. Parkinson's
- d. Alzheimer's